MENDOCINO'S BREWERY GULCH INN RECOGNIZED IN TRAVEL + LEISURE'S 2014 WORLD'S BEST AWARDS

Iconic Bed-And-Breakfast Voted One of the Top Inns and Small Lodges in the United States & One of the Top 50 Hotels Worldwide By Readers of Travel + Leisure Magazine

MENDOCINO COUNTY, CA – (July 18, 2014) – The results of the 19th annual Travel + Leisure World's Best Awards have been released, and Brewery Gulch Inn, a contemporary Arts & Crafts redwood lodge located on the Northern Mendocino Coast, has placed third in the continental U.S. Inn and Small Lodge category, and 20th among all hotels worldwide.

Every year, passionate Travel + Leisure readers vote on their favorite cities, lodging properties, spas, airlines, cruise lines, tour operators, rental-car agencies, and more in the annual World's Best Awards survey. This year, thousands of votes were cast in all categories by readers from around the world. The results of the Travel + Leisure World's Best Awards 2014 can be found online at <http://www.travelandleisure.com/worlds-best/2014>, and in Travel + Leisure's August print edition, available on newsstands July 18.

"My wife Sarah and I are fortunate to have had this incredible canvas of redwoods, ocean vistas and the magical light of coastal Mendocino on which to create this peaceful redwood retreat," stated Brewery Gulch Inn owner, Guy Pacurar. "We are deeply appreciative of our past guests and the readers of Travel + Leisure Magazine who took the time to vote for us in this survey, and we are in absolute awe of the company we are surrounded by."
